

Hermanus Guest House - by Adri Bezuidenhout

If you haven't been to Hermanus, you have lost out. This quaint little seaside village, an hour's drive from Cape Town, offers lots of scenic beauty, culinary delights and exciting experiences. The most memorable being whale watching from various vantage points.

If you plan to stay over for a night or two in Hermanus, look no further than the Hermanus Guest House.

Experience comfort, tranquillity, luxury, excellent service and a whale of a breakfast in pleasant surroundings. The décor is a talking point all on its own.

Cross the road and you are on the scenic cliff path where you are just minutes away from the village centre with its many restaurants, boutiques and a well-organised flea market.

The Hermanus Guest House is highly recommended by the editorial team.
